LOOK GREAT, BUT IT DOES NOT LAST

POOR QUALITY.

Was disappointed with these grapes. There was no crunch to their skin and whilst sweet there was no texture to the body of the grape. Like biting into a bubble of sweetened water.

over ripe

Horrible. Over ripe, very soft, very over ripe. Didn't even keep twenty four hours before collapsing. Very disappointing. I have bought before and they were better than this I will not buy again until later in the year. My mistake for buying out of season.

Best grapes

Very tasty grapes, I love them. A few with my breakfast fruit every morning, with some yogurt and muesli.

Crispy juicy grapes

I kept these grapes in the fridge and they lasted over a week. They were very juicy and stayed crisp. A lovely flavour.

Sustainable farming in the Caatinga

The goal of SUFICA is to enhance the competitiveness, sustainability and long-term resilience of fruit farming in the São Francisco Valley in Brazil as it intensifies, through cutting edge research on agricultural ecosystem services and biodiversity.

The project will co-design and test nature-based innovations on intensive fruit farms, which generate multiple environmental benefits whilst enhancing profitability of farm through improved yield or quality and reduced inputs.
